Behind every quilter is a huge pile of fabric!

If this sounds familiar then we just might have a solution for you. The third in a series of classes to help you reduce your stash. Patterns are for scrappy quilts and quite often there will be a new technique to learn. Where does the "pie" come in? Each pattern is named after a pie and included with the quilt pattern is a pie recipe. Yum!

Stash Pot Pie - Humble Pie

April 27/2102 - 10:00 am to 3:30 pm or
 May 5, 2012 - 10:00 am to 3:30 pm.

$25.00 plus tax per class

You must be able to rotary cut and sew a 1/4" seam. Bring your own lunch. We will provide tea, coffee, water and dessert - maybe pie.

Supply list and cutting directions are provided on paid registration and must be picked up no later than one week before class.

Stash Pot Pie classes are a great way to use up your stash! If you missed our Pie Chart and Queen of Tarts classes find five friends to join you and we will find a date that works. We need a minimum of 5 to run a class. Maximum seating is 8.

Introduction to Free Motion Quilting with Marg Sweete
